

Possessive Determiner or Pronoun? 06_poss_pron_01_L

1. Is this your book or is it mine?
2. Tell Nigel to do his homework and tell Maggie to do hers?
3. Mother to Boris: Can you tidy up your room or must I help you?
4. Father: Look, is that your English teacher? - You: No, this is my German teacher.
5. David is writing the invitations for his birthday party and Theresa is writing cards for hers.
6. My father is working in his shop.
7. Is that your house? - No, it's not ours, it's our father's house.
8. Can we park our helicopter in your garden.
9. Boris and Nigel are calling their friends and Maggie and Theresa are calling theirs.
10. You can play your music now.

Fill in the correct possessive determiner or pronoun. 06_poss_pro_02_L

Many people spend their holidays in Cornwall. I'd like to spend mine there, too. People there love the sea. They say the sea is theirs. When Philip and his father were in Torquay, his father said, "Watch out, Philip, There's a wallet on the pavement. Is it yours? It looks like it." - "No, it's not mine," Philip said. "But the woman over there is looking for something. Perhaps it's hers. We'll go and ask her." - "Excuse me, We have just found this wallet. Is it yours?" The woman was happy. On their way back to their holiday flat, Philip and his father saw a man and a woman with six dogs. They were going to the park with their dogs. Philip asked, "Do you think they are all theirs?" The man and the woman heard what Philip said and answered "Yes, they are all ours"

Whose is it? (mine, yours, his, hers, ours, theirs) 06_poss_pro_03_L

1. - Whose ruler is this? Is it yours, Nigel?
- No, it isn't mine. Perhaps it's Maggie's. She is looking for hers.
- And what about this sweater? Is it David's?
- No, it is not his. David's sweater is blue.
2. - Whose books are these? Are they yours, Nigel and Boris?
- No, they are not ours. Perhaps they are David's. He is looking for his.
- And what about these bags? Are they Theresa's and Maggie's?
- No, they are not theirs. They don't have yellow bags.
3. - Whose scarf is this? Is it yours, Maggie?
- No, it isn't mine. Perhaps it's Theresa's. She has lost hers.
- And what about this football? Is it Andrew's?
- No, it is not his. Andrew's football is new.
4. - Whose jackets are these? Are they yours, Maggie and Theresa?
- No, they are not ours. Perhaps they are Kate's and Lisa's. They are looking for theirs.
- And what about these posters? Are they Nigel's and David's?
- No, they are not theirs. They don't have posters of Lady Gogo.

Fill in the correct possessive determiner or pronoun. 06_poss_pro_04_L

1. Tell Peter not to forget his homework, and tell Maggie she must not forget hers.
2. Have you done your homework? I finished mine at 4 o'clock.
3. Peter has lost his pen. Can you give him yours?
4. We have cleaned our room. Have you cleaned yours?
5. She has booked her summer holidays. Have they booked theirs?
6. I have parked my car in front of the house. Where have you parked yours?